

I encourage you to support true local low power FM. Communities need their own voice, not canned voices of conglomerates that pay lip service to service to people.

Thank you